

Many people including myself have transfered our traditional land line telephone to wireless. If NJ no-call legislation is prohibited many of these unsolicited telemarketing calls will be affecting an individuals airtime minutes and possibly causing additional monthly overage charges. If the no-call legislation is lifted additonal legislation should be initiated requiring the incomming call to be charged to the party making the call.